Haha yo. I've been trying to get the idea of selling for less than $650 in my head and it just isn't sitting right. I don't need to sell these (no other purchases on the horizon for the first time since I joined lol) and anything less I'd regret even more than I will selling them at that price.

"If you love something, set it free I've heard... terrible advice when it comes to chips. Hoping no one wants them."

This is such BS that I would love to break the forum rules to call you out. Why post the bogus narrative when you want to flip chips. I have no problem with capitalism and making money but don't lying for no reason at all is inexcusable. I suspect that is why you haven't old these beautiful chips yet. Shame on you!

Triggered much? I could have sold them to you for $25 less than what they're currently listed for... if I was flipping why wouldn't I take your offer if I'm just in it for the money? If I am, are you saying $25 is significant enough money for me to turn down your offer? If so just look up the median salary of an audit manager at a big 4 accounting firm.

Funny thing is after your first night of messages I already knew I would never sell to you. Nickel and diming then pulling offers then drunk pming me after I told you I wouldn't go lower lolz.

Anyway I never blocked someone on here but seems like the easiest way to not have to deal with a snowflake conspiracy nut like you. Bye and I hope you learn negative won't bring you anything but unhappiness.

Happy chipping!

Thank god. Goodbye! You're a scam artist piece of shit. Would never want to buy chips from someone as dishonest as you.

Ah didn't know I'd still get messages here until I leave... I really am sorry you're such a negative person I honestly hope you find happiness in your life to the point you don't have to baselessly attack strangers online to have fulfillment in your day. At the same time I'll also be sure to share this PM thread in ALL of my group chats. The most active members here will know how corrosive of a person you are shortly.
